Paper to Pixels: Leading change in the era of AI and digital health innovations

11:00-11:30	Refreshments and introductions
11:30-12:00	Introduction and scene setting - Paper to Pixels: Leading change in the era of AI and digital health innovations Liesl Yearsley, Akin
12:00-12:40	Workshop: What are the opportunities enabling and barriers impeding the advancement of AI and digital health innovations to push boundaries? What are 3 actions leaders can take to push boundaries?
12:40-13:25	Lunch
13:25-14:45	Walking the talk: Unlocking leadership insights for a rapidly changing world - Dr Kedar Mate, CEO and President, IHI - Innovation, collaboration, and learning in healthcare, addressing the social determinants of health - Liesl Yearsley, CEO, Akin - AI and human transformation - Royal Flying Doctors - Delivering the finest healthcare to rural and remote Australia - Debbie Sorensen, CEO Pasifika Medical Association Group - improve outcomes for communities experiencing inequities - Dr Tina Janamian, Group Chief Executive Officer; Adj Associate Professor, University of Queensland, Australian General Practice Accreditation Limited (AGPAL) ; Quality Innovation Performance (QIP) - Quality innovation performance
14:45-15:20	Leadership Groups: Reflect on key learnings from walks - the importance of leadership in a changing world
15:20-15:30	What have we learnt / going to take away? Leisl Yearsley, Akin
15:30-15:35	Thank you and close of SLS session Attendees make their way to refreshments and start of Liesl's keynote
15:35-15:45	Refreshments
15:45-15:55	Delegates move to main room for plenary session NB. Other attendees onsite/collecting badges
15:55-16:40	You're already in a relationship with AI Liesl Yearsley, Akin