

International Forum on QUALITY & SAFETY in HEALTHCARE LONDON

International Forum on Quality and Safety in Healthcare

Senior Leaders Programme 10th of April, 11am – 4pm

Co-chairs: Dr. Dominique Allwood and Stacey Lally

Time	Session title and description
11:00 – 11:45	Welcome and energizer
11:45 – 12:45	Leading in challenging times As we live through these challenging times, in this session we will discuss three important topics facing senior leaders today: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Navigating the tensions between healthcare and politics; 2. Leading organisations through special measures; 3. The importance of having psychological safety not only for staff but also for senior leaders themselves. Join others in structured round table conversations about these challenges and explore how we can meaningfully respond to advance quality.
12:45 – 13:30	Lunch
13:30 – 14:15	Codesigning with communities Most developed nations are working to change their hospital-centric health care systems into more comprehensive "integrated" systems, focused on the broader concept of health and wellness that is rooted in communities and primary care. In this session, we will hear the stories of the opportunities and challenges in fostering meaningful engagement across organizational boundaries and co-designing with the public and communities.
14:15 – 14:55	Navigating the space between 'safety', 'financial pressures' and 'workload', a provocation from Early Careers Leaders Early career leaders in health and care will join us to share their views and challenge how senior leaders are managing the space between safety, financial pressures and workload.
14:55 – 15:05	Short break
15:05 – 15:45	If I knew then what I know now? If I knew then what I know now? This is a question that many of us ask ourselves ... what would we have done differently? We will hear from senior leaders from a variety of backgrounds who will answer this question to share their experience and lessons learned. You too will have the opportunity to reflect on this question to foster shared learning and knowledge gained throughout your journey as a senior leader in health and care.
15:45 – 16:30	Closing reflections energizer